Synopsis

In One More Sunrise, Dr. Emily Carter faces the harsh realities of life as a frontier doctor in the untamed wilderness of the Old West. Freshly graduated from medical school, she arrives in the boomtown of Sunrise, Colorado, eager to make a difference. But the frontier is a far cry from the lecture halls of Boston.

Emily must learn to adapt quickly to the challenges of frontier medicine. She encounters a wide range of patients, from gunshot wounds to childbirth. She must also contend with the prejudices of the time against female doctors. But Emily is determined to prove herself, and she soon earns the respect of the townspeople.

As Emily's medical skills are tested, so too are her limits. She falls in love with a rugged cowboy named Jake, but their relationship is forbidden. Emily must choose between her heart and her duty to her patients.

One More Sunrise is a captivating trilogy that follows Emily's journey as she navigates the challenges of medicine, love, and the indomitable spirit of the human heart. It is a story of courage, resilience, and the power of the human spirit.
